- ✓ 2015-State Women Singles Champion
- ✓ 2015-Bronze in U15 Girls Doubles National Championship

Introduction

Priyanka burst into the TN badminton scene by winning the U13 State Championship in 2013 not having finished podium before. It has been a steady climb for her ever since; the most important win bring the State Women Singles championship Title in 2015, while she was still at Sub junior Category, the first player from the state to achieve that feat.

Playing Style

She consistently gets impeccable length in her serves, lifts and tosses and defends well the traits which makes her a dependable player. Perhaps she lacks the power and speed of some of her contemporaries at National level, the reason behind her struggle to finish at the podium nevertheless remains the highest ranked TN player at Nationals. She is currently India No. 13 in Girls Singles U13.
